Further Repulse of British.

By Associated Press.
Berlin, via London, October 5.—A dispatch from Sofia, dated October 4, to a newspaper here, says:
"The premier of Bulgaria today made the following declaration to representatives of the government parties:
"We confront war, and must defend our national interest. We must wrest from our enemies everything they took from us two years ago, and get satisfaction for every insult."

Athens, Greece, October 5.—Wild disorder broke out in the Chamber of Deputies when the landing of French troops at Saloniki was discussed.

Premier Venizelos won a triumph, in the face of the opposition which protested against the occupation of Greek territory by foreign troops.

London, October 5.—The Greek minister at London said today, in regard to published reports from Athens that the Greek government had protested against the landing of troops of the allies at Saloniki: "Naturally some formality must be gone through."

Later he added: "The Greeks are glad that the troops have landed."

Berlin, October 5.—The British attacks on the German fortifications north of Loos have been again repulsed.

The War Office announced today that the efforts of the British were fruitless, and that they sustained considerable losses.

Paris, October 5.—There was a fairly violent bombardment in the Artois region yesterday, both sides taking part, according to the announcement given out by the French War Office this afternoon.

Petrograd, October 5.—Russia's ultimatum to Bulgaria was not delivered to Premier Radoslavoff until 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. This statement was made officially here today.

The Foreign Office at noon today stated that no answer had been received from Bulgaria to the ultimatum.

It was not expected by the Foreign Office that ultimata will be presented by Russia's allies.

Russia did not insist upon demobilization by Bulgaria, but it is expected that if this is not done at once Bulgaria will gradually reduce her army to a peace footing, in case her reply is favorable to Russia.

The Russian minister at Sofia may remain there indefinitely as a private citizen, owing to illness, even though diplomatic relations be severed.

Milan, via Paris, October 5.—A military convention was signed between Bulgaria, Germany and Austria some time ago, according to a Sofia dispatch to the Corriere Della Sera.

By the terms of this treaty, the dispatch asserts, the Bulgarian army is bound to attack Serbia with six divisions in the Nish-Pirot section, and to send Macedonian troops to Vardar to destroy railroad communication with Saloniki; thus delaying the allies in their efforts to aid Serbia.

The opposition Bulgarian leaders are reported to have changed front completely, and now proclaim that the nation is united.

Bands of students parade the streets of Sofia, singing alternately the Bulgarian, German and Austrian national anthems.

London, October 5.—Whether by delay in telegraphic communications or by some other unexplained cause, Bulgaria obtained an additional 24 hours in which to decide her course.

But with troops of the allies ready with Russian squadrons in the Black Sea prepared to attack Bulgarian ports and with Bulgarian forces along both the Serbian and Greek frontiers, there was believed to be little chance of any development which would prevent Bulgaria from aligning herself against the allies.

Special dispatches from Athens assert that Greek sailing ships already have been pursued by Bulgarian revenue cutters, the Greeks being fired upon but escaping.

Nish, Serbia, via London, October 5.—Close observers of the Balkan situation are of the opinion today that if Bulgaria does not at once dismiss the German officers who have been brought into the country to take part in Bulgaria's threatened military operations, an extension of the war in the Balkans is inevitable.

The arrival here in a few days is expected of the first detachment of troops of the quadruple entente.

The Serbian army is declared to be better prepared than ever to go into action.

By Associated Press.
New York, October 5.—The Turks and Kurds are waging a holy war of extermination on the Armenians, according to missionaries who arrived from Van, Turkey, on a Swedish steamer today.

One of them told how the 1,500 Armenians in Van held out against 5,000 Kurds and a Turkish company commanded by a German officer, from April 20 to May 17 when the Russians arrived.

The missionary confirmed all of the reports of outrages which have reached the United States, and said only a portion of the real story had been told.

By Associated Press.
New York, October 5.—Dr. Constantin T. Dumba, the Austro-Hungarian ambassador to Washington, who was recalled at the request of President Wilson, sailed for home today on the Holland-American liner Nieuw Amsterdam. He was accompanied by Mrs. Dumba.

Dr. Dumba sailed under a safe conduct arrangement made by the State Department.

The Nieuw Amsterdam will touch at Falmouth, England, and then proceed to Rotterdam. From the latter port Dr. Dumba will go at once to Vienna, to report to his foreign office.

Dr. Dumba, in his last words to the newspapermen, said:

XENIA PIGSKIN CHASERS LIKED BEER; SUSPENDED

How three Xenia saloonkeepers are facing charges for selling liquor to minors, and the Xenia football team which played in this city recently contains the minors, it is charged.

The following from the Xenia Gazette tells the story:

"Charges of selling intoxicating liquor to minors will be filed Tuesday with the Greene County Liquor

License Board by the Xenia School Board against three Xenia saloonkeepers. This drastic course is the result of an escape of several members of the high school football squad who had a party on the train returning from Washington C. H. a week ago Saturday when bottled beer figured prominently on the liquid end of the bill of fare.

"Investigation of several complaints made as a result of the escape consumed several days and brought slow developments.

"Their story was broken down and they implicated a young employee of one of the local factories, whom they claimed had bought the beer. He is also a minor. This young man admitted that he had secured the beer for the boys. The charges will be filed against three saloonkeepers.

"Wednesday night the time limit expires for the filing of complaints before the license board. It is probable that the license will be revoked as there has been much complaint made informally about the laxity of the saloons of the city in adhering to the law prohibiting the sale to minors.

"Several of the boys in the football squad were suspended and it is likely that they will not be allowed to take part in athletics this season."

NEW ROAD MAY NOT BE OPENED FOR SOMETIME

Announcement is made that the Jeffersonville pike paving may not be thrown open to the public for sometime to come, all depending upon whether or not Contractors Parish and Bales, of Dayton, are to begin the improvement of the road from the present paving terminus to the intersection of the Prairie pike.

If the contractors take up the work it may be early winter before the road is opened. Contractor Mark announces that the state requires 15 days for the paving to "set" after completed, and that if the other contractors do not begin work, the road will be opened sometime the latter part of next week, instead of Saturday of this week.

The Church and the Engagement

The breaking of the engagement, often a thing of light moment to young people, is by one church made a concern of religion and there are several other churches scarcely less strict in the viewpoint they take of the sacredness and binding force of betrothals.

Authorities in these religious bodies impress upon their communicants that the breaking off of a betrothal is a violation of the teaching and practice of their religion.

In the Catholic church, which takes the most decided stand upon this question, a promise to wed, once given, is considered but little less sacred than the vows at the altar. Its church legislation on the engagement problem provides that when members of its faith enter into engagements to marry the parish priest must be notified and the final announcement of the couple's intention to marry is recorded in the records of the parish.

There is no question that this policy of publishing the banns is a safeguard to the parties concerned, giving opportunity for anyone cognizant of any real impediment to the marriage, to make it known.

The question of broken engagements, and that bigger question of divorce, has and always will arouse warm argument and widely diverse opinions.

But, in these days of lightly made and easily broken engagements, it is well to impress the seriousness of the betrothal. The fact that churches make the engagement a real concern of religion lends vital importance to its sacredness.

There may be cases when an engagement is much better broken than kept, when legitimate reasons prohibit holding to the vow, when lives are spared infinite unhappiness by discovering the mistake in time, but these cases ought to be the exception, not the common thing they are.

If young people knew that it would be impossible to break their promise to wed except with great difficulty, the passing engagement of the summer flirtation; the mere passing whim of an idle hour, would cease to be a popular amusement and in its place thoughtful consideration be given to a contract which should be the most sacred in life.

American Genius Honored in Life

Strange, but true, genius has seldom been recognized during its lifetime.

There have been flowers and honors in abundance after genius has been buried, when those same tributes paid to the living might have proved the live coal to stir smoldering embers to blazing brilliancy.

But at least one American, man of letters is to receive official recognition during his lifetime—the Hoosier poet whose poems have a distinctive place in every library and who is always especially in mind at this season when “The Frost is on the Pumpkin and the Fodder in the Shock.”

All Indiana is preparing to celebrate October the seventh in honor of the birthday of its loved poet, James Whitcomb Riley.

Four years ago, after a stroke of paralysis, Mr. Riley said, “My work is finished and my end is come.”

That the end did not come and that the author of “The Raggedy-man” has so improved in health that it now seems to be far distant, is the joy of the Hoosiers. Riley Day will be a big day, with schools holding celebrations all over the state and people coming from other states back to Indiana to join in the common outpouring of affection.

Indiana is a state of literary celebrities, but among all of its shining lights no one has ever held just the same place as this poet, the tenderness of whose genius folds him into the hearts of the people.

With the same spirit that penned the lines, “When God sends rain, why, rain’s my choice,” Mr. Riley now renews all the interests of his younger days and declares that he is “enjoying life in spite of the war in Europe.”

The celebration of “Riley Day” with Riley living, pulses with a very different interest from that of the eulogies and tributes heaped upon the memory of a departed genius.

Agricultural Progress Not Keeping Pace With Industrial Growth

By MYRON T. HERRICK, Former Ambassador to France

THE troubles with American agriculture are not so much of pressing, immediate importance as they are fraught with grave consequences for the future. Europe's problem was to remove troubles which actually existed. Ours is to prevent them from occurring. Agricultural progress here is not keeping pace with the expansion of industry and the growth of population.

UNLESS ITS PROGRESS BE ACCELERATED THE SHORTCOMINGS OF AGRICULTURE AMID THE RAPID ADVANCE OF ALL THINGS ELSE WILL SOONER OR LATER BE DETRIMENTAL TO THE COUNTRY'S WELFARE.

The causes of these shortcomings are manifold. The want of good roads is one and the absence of social pleasures is another cause, but the greatest of all is, in my opinion, the lack of organized selling and purchasing power.

Organized selling and purchasing power is best attained through co-operation.

Co-operation must be built up by the farmers themselves by starting at the very roots and depending on their own resources and efforts, first assembled and combined in basic units or local co-operative banks or credit societies.

Poetry For Today

COMIN' ON OCTOBER.

It's a comin' on October an' the woods is gettin' yellin'; Sort o' hazylike an' lazy to a dreamy sort o' feller. They's a jay a-singin' sassy on a pin-oak by th' gate. An' a katydid a-fiddlin' "Gettin later' Gettin later'!" They's a gum tree turnin' purple an' a maple turnin' red. An' th' beach leaves is a-brownin' like as if th' tree was dead. Oh, it's wine 'stid o' blood drops that's pumpin' round in me, 'Cause it's comin' on October an' I'm glad as I kin be.

Sky's th' bluest in th' middle—sort o' greyish round the rim. While th' fur hills is purplish an' th' sides is kin' o' dim. Every sumac is a-blazin' like the bush that Moses seen When he had t' take 'is shoes off an' go barefoot on th' green. Chestnut burr's gittin' bigger, groun' strewn with akern cups. An' th' whole blam' worl' is purtier'n a brace o' spotted pups. I'm forgettin' that I'm forty an' rememberin' I'm 'leven. 'Cause it's coming on October, an' I'm shoul'r deep in heaven. —Strickland W. Gilliland.

Cleveland, Oct. 5.—Victory for striking machinists was indicated when A. L. Garford, president of the Cleveland Automatic Machine company, openly espoused the cause of the workmen. Millions of Gallons of Water Freed.

Portsmouth, O., Oct. 5.—Three frame dwellings were destroyed and one side of a hill washed away when the east concrete wall of the huge reservoir for the storage of the Portsmouth water supply collapsed, precipitating 7,000,000 gallons of water down the steep hillside. Occupants of the houses fled to safety before the torrent of water reached their homes.

VON BERNSTORFF TO SEE LANSING

Submarine Issue to Be Aired at a Conference.

Washington, Oct. 5.—The next step toward an adjustment of the submarine controversy between the United States and Germany will be a conference between Secretary of State Lansing and Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador.

The understanding here is that Count Von Bernstorff has been given very wide latitude by his government in negotiating a settlement of the controversy, and that from now on the negotiations are likely to take the form of personal memoranda, passing between the German ambassador and the state department. This is accepted here as evidence that the Berlin authorities have come to lend an attentive ear to Count Bernstorff's recommendations. The communication which passed between Secretary Lansing and the German ambassador last week is understood now to have been of this personal character, but based on general instructions from Berlin.

Farmer's Wife Loses $750

She had been getting together by degrees quite a sum of money from the sale of eggs, poultry and butter. It represented hard work covering quite a period of time. She kept it in a pocket she had made behind the mirror of her bureau. When she went to get it the other day it was gone. No one knows just when, or how, or where it is gone. Had she kept that money at the Fayette County Bank she would today have it. Where is your money just now? Why not before the chance to lose it comes open an account with it here?

Luke McLuke Says

Some men go out hunting for trouble and others get married on $10 per week. A fellow often wonders where all the germs and microbes were in the old days when he used to eat red ants spread on his bread and butter, and when the well was located about ten feet back of the kitchen door, and when his mother stopped the blood from flowing by putting a big, dirty cobweb on the wound when he cut himself, and when his father healed the wound by plastering tobacco on it. These highbrow philosophers should get together and compare notes. One of them announces that woman's crowning glory is her hair, and another announces that glory cannot be bought. We are all in favor of civic improvements as long as the proposed improvements affect the taxes of the other fellow. Once in awhile a man does lose his money out of a hole in the bottom of his pocket. But the most dangerous hole in a man's pocket is the one at the top. The old fashioned man who discovered that he had six or seven different ailments every time he read a patent medicine almanac now has a son who pays a specialist $25 to learn that he is suffering from flatulent indigestion-dyspepsia-gastritis. A magazine poet longs for "peace and quiet and undisturbed rest." Well, why doesn't he get a job clerking in a store that doesn't do any newspaper advertising?

COUNCIL BEGINS ANEW ON LIGHTING SYSTEM

Special Assessment Resolutions for the "White Way" Are Passed—"Missing Link" Near Union Station Believed to Be Nearing Settlement—"White Wings" Taken From Streets—Ordinance for Increasing Taxes Passed By Unanimous Vote—Yeoman Street Improvement Is Halted—Citizen Makes Protest Against "White Way"—Meeting Next Monday Night.

In addition to reopening legislation for the new lighting system, including the proposed "white way" discussing the Union Station project in an effort to discover the "missing link" between Millwood and the main part of the city, the city council Monday night passed an ordinance to submit a two mill tax increase to the voters, knocked out the "white wings" who clean the uptown streets and have been paid by general taxation, refused to improve Yeoman street until other more important streets are given attention, and indicated their determination to hew to the lines previously decided upon.

The Union township trustees and council first met, approved the Cemetery Superintendent's report, and named A. T. Vincent to fill a vacancy on the committee of trustees and council who control the cemetery business.

The first matter of business coming before the council was that of a street flusher, Mr. Shoemaker, representing the Studebaker Company describing the Uniform Pressure Flusher manufactured by that concern, and which is being used by many Ohio municipalities. No action was taken toward investigating the merits of the flusher.

George Inskeep addressed council, urging a "give and take" policy to obtain the new Union Station.

An ordinance declaring the tax levy insufficient to meet the city's requirements under existing laws, and asking that a two mill increase be submitted to the voters, was passed by unanimous vote.

A communication from The J. W. Willis Lumber Company was read. The company offered a 40 foot right of way across the company's property at the southern end of their lumber yards as a solution of the "missing link" to take the place of Paint street when the Union Station is erected. A number of conditions were attached, including changes at the concrete bridge, a concrete retaining wall, agreement to pave within seven years at no cost to the donors. The right of way was to be donated to the city.

A communication from Chas. Allen in which a right of way across his property south of the sales barn and connecting with the Willis right of way, was read. Mr. Allen also offered to donate the right of way providing the thoroughfare have a top width of 26 feet and be maintained by the city.

Will Worthington presented proposals from P. J. Burke, on a right of way across his property for the "missing link." A strip of ground 40 feet wide, from Temple to the B. & O. was offered for the sum of $1,000, providing the city turned over Water street to him. He offered a strip 12 feet in width for widening Water street, for the sum of $1250.

Oliver Baughn, of Millwood, stated that he and Mr. Ed Pfeiffer had discovered a new route for the link, by coming across the Dayton avenue bridge, bending across the corner of the Burke property, crossing the railroad and coming out over a street where the alley is located, between Paint street and Temple street, and connecting with Hinde street. The Jane Davis property must be purchased, he stated, in order to make the street 46 feet in width. He said the route outlined was better than any yet discovered and placed Millwood just as near up town as it is at the present time. This was apparently satisfactory to all Millwood residents present.

It was thought the B. & O. or D. T. & I. would object to the route as it would cross the proposed union station platform along the C. H. & D. and D. T. & I. railroads.

Veall said Millwood citizens were entitled to the best that council could give, and moved that council as a whole investigate and decide at an early meeting. This was adopted. Council will go over the ground at nine o'clock Wednesday morning.

Mr. Worthington was asked to obtain the consent of the railroads to cross the tracks.

Mayor Coffey's report for September showed $217.15 in fines, $17 in street licenses and $4.20 for jail board.

Auditor McFadden's monthly report showed the following balances September 30: General fund, $1,377.87; Safety fund, $101.58; Health $162.35; Service $9,013.91; Service Bond $6.61.

A resolution authorizing Service Director Gerstner to employ labor on the Leesburg avenue sewer at 25c per hour, was adopted.

A resolution changing the denomination of $7,500 in city bonds, was adopted.

An ordinance empowering the City Engineer to employ one or more persons at $5 per day, to ascertain the property owners' names and foot frontage on proposed improvements, was passed. It was declared an emergency measure.

Then in turn came five resolutions declaring it necessary to improve Court street from Hinde to North; East street from Main to Fayette; Market from Hinde to the Hess-Hodson alley; Main, from East to the Y. M. C. A. alley and Fayette from East to Market street, by erecting and maintaining an ornamental lighting system, known as a "white way," 12 standards to a square and two 250 candle power lamps to the standard, and providing for a special assessment of 50 cents per foot front per annum for a period of ten years to help pay the cost of lighting.

George Inskeep, addressing council, stated that the new system as proposed, was not a necessity but a luxury and unjust and that the taxpayers would resist the proposal. He stated that when H. Whitford Jones was employed it was understood he would obtain more light for less money, but instead he had obtained less light for more money. That the 132 old lights had a total of 158,400 candle power and the 685 new lights proposed had 110,350 candle power, or 48,050 candle power less and at an increased cost of $5,000 more each year.

M. Tracey replied that all wanted the "white way" if someone else paid for it; that a petition containing 700 names had been presented to council asking for a "white way," that council had been advised by Mr. Inskeep in a speech last fall to "handle the knockers without gloves" and that was what council proposed to do.

Each of the resolutions was submitted and passed under suspension of rules, by a unanimous vote.

No ordinance authorizing the Service Director to advertise for bids for lighting was submitted, the statement being made that such action would come later just as all proposals for street improvement are handled. This will require several months.

The blanket ordinance to issue bonds to pay the city's portion of the improvements on Main, Hinde and Yeoman streets was taken up.

Howell objected to voting in favor of the measure, stating that other streets should be improved before Yeoman street, inasmuch as Yeoman street had never paid some $2,000 in improvements made. He said many citizens had protested, $6,000 of the bonds were to pay the city's portion on the street. Under the legislation the street could be paved, although it was stated macadam was all that was wanted. $6,000 was deemed a stiff price for "macadam" and separate ordinances were prepared.

Howell then stated that it was

DON'T FORGET THAT RUMMAGE SALE

The Welfare Association is preparing for the annual fall Rummage

Sale for the benefit of the poor for early November. It is earnestly hoped that the women of Washington will keep in mind this sale and hoard all old clothing rummaged out in the fall cleaning.

The Rummage sale has a double mission; it provides articles of clothing and other necessities at a nominal price which enables the self-respecting poor to purchase and it brings greatly needed funds into the society's treasury at a time when cold weather brings many calls.

Housewives often throw away many articles which would be much appreciated by the Welfare Association.

BRIGHT YOUNG GIRL CLAIMED BY DEATH

Sad beyond words to express was the death of Miss Dovey Louise Myers, daughter of Mr. Frank Myers, of below Good Hope, which occurred at the Hodson Hospital shortly after nine o'clock Monday night.

A lovely young girl of sixteen, making friends wherever she went, and the only daughter in a home saddened by the mother's death five years ago, and who had since made the home for her father and four brothers, her untimely death arouses the deepest sympathy of the community and many friends in this city and at the former home, Bloomingburg.

Last week Miss Myers was taken ill with appendicitis, but refused to give up. She had been attending school and was in her place as late as Friday. Saturday morning she was taken to the hospital suffering greatly and the disease too far advanced to be conquered.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 at the M. E. church of Good Hope. Burial in the family lot in the Bloomingburg cemetery.

SOLDIERS HURRY TOWARD THE BORDER

B. & O. passenger train No. 107, Monday evening carried two extra coaches containing soldiers, who are said to have been on their way southwest toward the Mexican border, ostensibly to relieve troops now doing duty there or strengthen the forces at that point.

One evening last week three coaches filled with troops passed through, also headed toward the southwest.

CHOLERA VIRUS IS BLAMED

Columbus, Oct. 5.—By an order adopted by the state board of agriculture it is decreed that anti-hog cholera serum shall not be imported into the state or sold, used or given away, unless a written permit has been issued by the state veterinarian, nor are swine to be given such treatment except upon permit. State Veterinarian Cooley states that disease has been spread in the state by impure serum.

SAY RUSSIA IS STARVING POLISH JEWS

New York, Oct. 5.—The Day, the national Jewish daily, has received the following wireless message from Berlin, from its editor, Herman Bernstein, who is at present traveling in the belligerent countries: "Russian outrages against the Jewish population are continuing despite rumors circulated that the condition of the Jews has improved. The truth is that the distress of Russian-Polish Jews is appalling. Hundreds of thousands are literally starving. Immediate relief on the largest scale is imperative. Russia is trying to solve the Jewish question by annihilating the Jews."

MAY IGNORE INDUSTRIAL INFRACTIONS

Denver, Colo., Oct. 5.—While all the miners in the coal camps on one hand and the directors of the company on the other were ratifying the Rockefeller industrial plan, state officials were discussing a conference between Mr. Rockefeller and Governor Carlson and its probable effect upon the quashing of 400 indictments pending against former strikers and labor leaders growing out of the Colorado coal strike.

There is a growing belief that the entire industrial situation in Colorado would be improved by the dismissal of most, if not all, of the strike cases. It is not improbable that further prosecution may be dropped of the case against John R. Lawson, United Mine Workers official, whose appeal from the conviction for murder is now pending before the state supreme court. Prominent men well informed regarding the political strength of the company in Colorado, particularly with the present administration, say, "the whole slate could be wiped clean if the mining interests so desired."

FRENCH TROOPS LAND IN GREECE

Allies Will Aid Serbia In Repelling Invaders.

GREAT CONFLICT IMMINENT

Teutonic Armies Massed Along the Serbian Frontier Said to Number Several Hundred Thousand Men. Commander of British Forces at the Dardanelles Looks Over the Ground. Attitude of Greece.

London, Oct. 5.—To aid in repelling German or Bulgarian invasion of Serbia, the allies have landed French troops at Salonika, where they have probably already entrained to join the Serbian army.

Field Marshal Von Mackensen has arrived on the Serbian frontier, says a Bucharest dispatch, to assume command of the Austro-German forces about to press into Serbia. One hundred thousand German soldiers have been moved from Bukovina to the Serbian frontier. From many sources it is estimated that the Teutonic armies massed along this front number several hundred thousand men.

Two powerful Russian squadrons are lying off Varna, the principal Bulgarian Black sea port, says a message from Salonika. Extensive military preparations are under way at Odessa and Sebastopol, where numerous transports have been collected. These movements are taken to indicate a Russian attempt to land troops at Varna as soon as the naval forces have reduced the insufficient fortifications.

It is understood that a very considerable force of allied troops are stationed on the island of Lemnos, but a few hours by water from Salonika. Military observers are inclined to think that the extensive Italian expeditionary army which departed from Naples and Brindisi in August is being held at Lemnos for momentary transportation to Serbia by way of Salonika.

General Sir Ian Hamilton, commander of the British forces at the Dardanelles, arrived at Salonika, says another dispatch from Athens, to look over the ground there and superintend preparations for the transportation of the expeditionary forces across Greece to Serbia.

Respecting the landing of French troops, the official organ of the Greek government says that for the present the assistance of the allies is considered premature, but that it is none the less to aid and support Greece that the allies are at Salonika. The three Macedonia railways, of which two are Austrian, and one French, have been taken over by the Greek ministry of war and will be operated especially for the transportation of troops.

6000 STRIKERS

Schenectady, N. Y., Oct. 5.—Six thousand employees of the General Electric company's plant here walked out on strike after failure to obtain an eight-hour working day. The strike came after the grievance committee of the Metal Trades alliance had accepted the company's offer of a fifty-two and one-half hour week. The men refused to accept the compromise, repudiated the committee's action and struck.

OLD, OLD STORY OF CUSSEDNESS

New York, Oct. 5.—The federal grand jury returned an indictment under the Elkins amendment to the interstate commerce law charging the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad with failing to charge the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Coal company the full amount due under the federal tariffs for shipments of coal made by the coal company over the Lackawanna lines.

WASTE SCHOOL LAND INCOME?

Columbus, Oct. 5.—Examination of school lands in twelve counties by Examiner John A. Bliss has disclosed mismanagement and waste, according to a statement given out by State Auditor Donahey. "The boards of trustees required to administer these lands in the interests of the schools are not legally constituted, and the same waste exists as in other counties heretofore reported on," said Mr. Donahey's statement. "The twelve counties comprise an acreage of 5,298 acres, and the market value is $250,730. The schools are receiving an average of 1.77 per cent of their market value. If the lands were sold and the proceeds invested by the state they would receive nearly four times the present annual revenue."

SUFFRAGE IS BOOSTED BY THE CABINET

Washington, Oct. 5.—Practically all doubt as to the president's decision to endorse suffrage as a state issue in the forthcoming election in New Jersey was removed when Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo announced that he intended to vote for the suffrage amendment to the New York constitution. The announcement of the secretary following so closely upon that of Secretary of War Garrison and Secretary Tumulty that they tended to vote for the equal suffrage amendment in New Jersey is regarded as making it practically certain that Mr. Wilson soon will be enrolled as an advocate of granting the vote to women by the states. Secretary of Commerce Redfield and Secretary of Labor Wilson have declared in favor of suffrage in their respective states also.

It was said at the White House that the president will issue a statement about Oct. 12 setting forth that he will vote in the suffrage election in New Jersey.

GERMAN FORCES RETAKE REDOUBT

British Forced Back By Driving Counter Attacks.

REPULSED AT OTHER POINTS

Also Gain a Footing In Sharp Engagement With the French South of Givenchy—Asphyxiating Gas Is Used by the British In Recent Offensive, Says Berlin—Aeroplane of the Allies In Another Raid.

London, Oct. 5.—In the west the German forces have persisted in their driving counter attacks against the British until they have retaken most of the Hohenzollern redoubt, so named by the German soldiers. This is admitted by Field Marshal French's latest report, but it is not claimed specifically by the Germans themselves, possibly because of the fact that the loss of this stronghold was never conceded by Berlin.

That asphyxiating gas was used by the British in their recent offensive is the charge circulated by Berlin. The British war office had made no statement regarding the truth or falsity of this.

The French war office reports that trench fighting of a violent nature is raging in Artois. To the south of Givenchy the Germans have gained a footing at the crossing of five roads, but were repulsed everywhere else.

The German claim that the British lost 60,000 and the French 130,000 men in the recent fighting also is without denial so far.

German naval airships damaged two British monitors off La Panne, on the Belgian coast near the French border, it was officially announced in Berlin.

German army headquarters declares the recent British success near Lens was due to a surprise and a gas attack and not to "any soldierly qualities of the English attack."

Five aeroplanes of the allies bombed Zeebrugge, on the Belgian coast, an Amsterdam newspaper announces. One machine was brought down by anti-aircraft gunfire, while another, which had motor trouble, was compelled to land in Dutch territory.

TURKEY WARNED BY PRES. WILSON

Slaughter of Armenians Threatens Relations.

NOTE SENT TO MORGENTHAU

Latter Instructed to Inform the Porte That the American People Are Stirred by Reports of Massacres of Armenians in Turkish Territory—Wilson Makes Plea That Atrocities Cease.

Washington, Oct. 5.—United States Ambassador Morgenthau at Constantinople was instructed by cable to inform the Turkish minister of foreign affairs that public sentiment in the United States is so stirred by the reports of the Armenian atrocities that unless the massacres ceased, friendly relations between the American people and the people of Turkey would be threatened.

Officials made it clear that this message, though its importance was by no means minimized, did not threaten a break in the diplomatic relations. Turkey already has let it be known that she will not permit interference by any foreign power with her so-called "Armenian policy."

As American life or property has not been affected, the United States government, without submitting an official protest, merely informs Turkey of the effect continued Armenian atrocities would have on the American people.

Secretary Lansing said that no representations had been made to Germany regarding the treatment of the Armenians by the Turks. It was learned, however, that Ambassador Morgenthau had reported that the German embassy at Constantinople had filed a protest on this subject with the Turkish foreign office.

An announcement some time ago said that the state department had asked Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador here, to bring the matter to the attention of the foreign office.

The suggestion made recently by Ambassador Morgenthau at Constantinople that a large number of Armenians from Asiatic Turkey be brought to this country, was declared by the American board of commissioners for foreign missions to be inadvisable.

Stettin has been torpedoed in the Baltic by a British submarine, according to an Amsterdam dispatch. Ten of the crew have been landed, while the remainder are on the way to Sassnitz.

French Relinquish Ground.

Paris, Oct. 5.—The French infantry attacks were continued in Artois with great energy. Slight gains were made. In Champagne there was a complete cessation of infantry fighting. The ground won at the five highways in Artois had to be relinquished because of a fierce German counter attack, but elsewhere the Germans were kept at bay.

DEMS WILL GO AFTER TWO LAWS

Columbus, Oct. 5.—The Democratic state central and state executive committees, state and county leaders and five congressmen met here and made plans for their campaign against the Sprague congressional district law. By resolution, they also endorsed the Greenlund license law and denounced the McDermott law. They urged the voters to vote against the McDermott law and for "the present law, passed by the Democratic general assembly of 1913."

State Chairman William L. Finley, with a special committee to aid him, was put in charge of the campaign against the Sprague law. By resolution it was asserted the gerrymander was designed to make certain seventeen Republican districts out of twenty-two, and to give half the voters of the state, who are Democrats, less than one-fourth the representation in congress the other half of the voters, who are Republicans, would have.

Strong pressure is being brought to bear on the Republican state organization to make a fight in defense of the McDermott license law, which has been subjected to referendum, as for the one other Republican measure on which a referendum has been brought, the Sprague law.

Talk With Governor Willis.
Columbus, Oct. 5.—State officials, seated in the chamber of the house of representatives, for an hour exchanged felicitations and swapped jokes with Governor Willis and his party at the Ohio building at the exposition in San Francisco, 2,700 miles away. Immediately afterwards, the governor held a conversation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Willis, at Delaware.

It speaks well for the agricultural industry of this country that 60 per cent of the farms are worked by their owners, that 80 per cent of the farm-owned are free from encumbrance and that of those owned as investments 40 per cent are unencumbered.

GRAND JURY COMPLETES TWO-DAY INVESTIGATION

At 3:15 o'clock Tuesday afternoon the October grand jury made its report to Judge Carpenter after having been in session two days, examining nearly 60 witnesses covering a score of cases. The jail was visited and found kept in accordance with the rules governing the prison.

The grand jury returned seven true bills, ignoring 12 of the cases coming to their attention.

Indictments returned are:

Ralph Chilcote, rape, committed upon Helen Payne, September 14.

Roy Butler, cutting with intent to kill Harvey Lloyd.

Ralph Smith, assault with intent to kill Willard Johnson, June 20.

Orin Benjamin, larceny and receiving stolen property.

Elmer Cox and Allen Justice, larceny.

Clarence Taylor and Alfred Butler, alias Alfred Smith, burglary and larceny.

Riley Justice, assault and battery.

In the case of Frank Conner, accused of assault with intent to kill, the grand jury returned no indictment, holding that the man was insane at the time and is now insane. This is probably the first instance of its kind ever recorded in the local courts.

A cell for solitary confinement was recommended for the county jail.

As a result of trouble occurring Sunday, in which Wade Keaton and John Gillum were implicated, the two men were placed in the county jail to await arraignment upon a charge of disorderly conduct.

They were left in the jail until Tuesday, while efforts to obtain funds to pay their way out, were made. Keaton was recently bound over to the grand jury on a charge of assault and battery.

Thirteen months of warfare ought to have furnished sufficient variety of weather to give the airships opportunity for demonstrating their worth as instruments of destruction. For scouting purposes they have accomplished all that was expected; but, though they have done something as terrorists, they have done practically nothing as destroyers.

British experts say that the United States will have the cream of everything after the war and that the capitalists of combatant nations will get only thin skimmed milk. What remains for the common people who are doing the fighting will be curdled nothingness.

Pilot Wilson encountered comparatively lamblike weather at the outset of his term, only tariff, banking and business reform, with watchful waiting for Mexico. Just now the lion has the weather bit in his teeth, apparently for the rest of the voyage.

"The independence of the republic" and "the highest duties imposed upon him by his elevated trust," together with love, private vengeance and a love or slaughter, are the considerations usually nearest the heart of a Mexican "dellerec."

In Social Circles

The October meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution most auspiciously opened the new year with a charming program and large attendance at the home of Mrs. Robert Howat, Monday afternoon.

Assisting Mrs. Howat as the afternoon's hostesses were Mesdames Ballard, Quinn, Jackson, Harlow, Coffman, Pruden, Blakeley, Boggs, of GoodHope, Beatty, Misses Rose McLean and Forest Allen.

A short business session prefaced the program.

Mrs. Frank M. Kennedy, first vice president, was in the chair and expressed the chapter's regret in having received the resignation of the Regent, Mrs. Emma A. Brown Morris.

The executive committee appointed Mrs. Kennedy as first vice to the office of Regent, Miss Emma Jackson to the office of first vice Regent and Mrs. H. B. Maynard to take Miss Jackson's place on the Committee of Safety.

The Daughters were asked to visit Mrs. Barney, of Greenfield, a Daughter of the Hillsboro chapter, who is at the Hodson Hospital.

The following delegates were appointed to the State D. A. R. convention to be held in London on October 26th, 27th and 28th: The Regent, Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. Os Briggs, Miss Florence Ogle and Mrs. Robert Howat; alternates, Mrs. Joseph H. Harper, Mrs. James A. Crawford, Miss Ethel Pine and Miss Emma Jackson.

An invitation was extended to the local chapter from the Columbus chapter for an anniversary celebration on the eleventh of October.

The business disposed of, the Daughters, with quite a number of invited guests, were favored by Mrs. Walter Meek of Denver, Colo., with a group of songs. Those who have heard Mrs. Meek are always most eager to hear her again, both for the beautiful tone quality of her resonant soprano and her sympathetic interpretation. She is one of those singers endowed with the rarest of gifts—temperament.

The first of her songs "By Name," Mary Knight Wood, gave her voice the most brilliant opportunity, but there was great charm in "The Land of the Sky Blue Water," one of the Canadian Indian songs, in which are found in pure form the melodies of the tribal Indians, combined with their words.

In response to a prolonged encore Mrs. Meek sang a pretty love song, "All For You."

Pertinent to the first gathering after the various happenings of the summer, Miss McLean led in a symposium on "Vacation Journeys."

In response to the leader's call Mrs. James A. Crawford gave an entertaining brief resume of her trip of last spring through the south and southwest, touching especially upon New Orleans, La., leading cities of Texas and Oklahoma, and introducing a pleasing personal touch in locating former Washingtonians now in the south and west.

Always a brilliant and captivating conversationalist, Miss Haidee Van Winkle carried her audience with her in a most delightful visit to the Panama-Pacific exposition, and left them with a new impression of the marvelous panorama of beauty coloring and architecture, which from the view point of many surpasses any former fair.

Miss Corda McCafferty closed the Daughters' journeying and supplemented Miss Van Winkle's glimpse of California, with a description of her trip through Yellow Stone National Park. Miss McCafferty's impressions of the scenic wonders of the park remained very vivid and she brought to her listeners a realistic conception of this most interesting place of tourists.

The Daughters and guests enjoyed visiting and the hospitality of the flower scented home while the hostesses served refreshments.

Among the guests were Mrs. Michael S. Creamer of Los Angeles, Cal., Mrs. Walter Meek and daughter Eleanor of Denver, Colo., and Mrs. W. W. Westerfield of New Orleans, La.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. McClure entertained with an enjoyable family dinner in honor of their guests Mrs. Margaret Beekman of Peebles, O., and Mrs. S. A. Williamson of Cincinnati. The additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McClure, daughter Miss Eva of Bloomingburg, and guest, Miss Grace McCreight of Richmond, Ind.; Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Stitt and little son Robert.

Mrs. J. J. Kelley and sister Miss Lydia Vincent, delightfully entertained the M. H. G. Club at the home of the former, Monday evening.

After the business meeting the girls sewed for the Welfare Association. Dainty refreshments were served and fall flowers decked the rooms.

Mrs. Robert Schenck, of Dayton, was an out of town guest.

The home of Mrs. Jeanette Cline, on E. Paint street, was the scene of a highly enjoyable family dinner Tuesday, in honor of the birthday of Mr. James McCoy, of Tennessee, who is visiting his sister.

Relatives came with baskets bursting with good things to eat, for a picnic dinner. Many brought presents and flowers to Mr. McCoy and showered him with greetings and good wishes.

During the afternoon other friends called and it was altogether a day of happy reunion. Mr. McCoy, whose health will not permit him to go to them, thoroughly appreciates having them visit him and renew earlier friendships.

Participating in the dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Smith and family, Mrs. Martha Patton and son Waco, Mrs. Lena Backenstoe, Mrs. J. F. Myers and children, Mrs. Eunice E. Compton, Mrs. D. H. Smith, Mrs. Carl Plyley of Springfield, Mr. Geo. McCoy, Mrs. Leda Smith and son William, Mrs. Bert McCoy, Mrs. Chas. Kearney, Mrs. Thomas Kearney, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Lemons, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Brandenburg of Wilmington, Mr. and Mrs. Cary Overstake and family.

What Does "Good Clothes" Mean?

Almost unconsciously you think of high prices when "Good Clothes" are spoken of.

But the day when it was necessary to pay high prices for a good suit is a matter of history.

It's a well known fact, and a very pleasing one, too, that Clothcraft Clothes are obtainable here in town, because they are really "Good Clothes." Popularity is the barometer by which we judge.

And $10 to $15 prices leave a large margin on the deposit side of your bank book, instead of an I. O. U. somewhere else.

By Associated Press.
Berlin, via London, October 5.—A dispatch from Sofia, dated October 4, to a newspaper here, says:
"The premier of Bulgaria today made the following declaration to representatives of the government parties:
"We confront war, and must defend our national interest. We must wrest from our enemies everything they took from us two years ago, and get satisfaction for every insult."

Athens, Greece, October 5.—Wild disorder broke out in the Chamber of Deputies when the landing of French troops at Saloniki was discussed.

Premier Venizelos won a triumph. In the face of the opposition which protested against the occupation of Greek territory by foreign troops.

London, October 5.—The Greek minister at London said today, in regard to published reports from Athens that the Greek government had protested against the landing of troops of the allies at Saloniki: "Naturally some formality must be gone through."

Later he added: "The Greeks are glad that the troops have landed."

Berlin, October 5.—The British attacks on the German fortifications north of Loos have been again repulsed.

The War Office announced today that the efforts of the British were fruitless, and that they sustained considerable losses.

Paris, October 5.—There was a fairly violent bombardment in the Artois region yesterday, both sides taking part, according to the announcement given out by the French War Office this afternoon.

Petrograd, October 5.—Russia's ultimatum to Bulgaria was not delivered to Premier Radoslavoff until 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. This statement was made officially here today.

The Foreign Office at noon today stated that no answer had been received from Bulgaria to the ultimatum.

It was not expected by the Foreign Office that ultimatums will be presented by Russia's allies.

Russia did not insist upon demobilization by Bulgaria, but it is expected that if this is not done at once Bulgaria will gradually reduce her army to a peace footing, in case her reply is favorable to Russia.

The Russian minister at Sofia may remain there indefinitely as a private citizen, owing to illness, even though diplomatic relations be severed.

Milan, via Paris, October 5.—A military convention was signed between Bulgaria, Germany and Austria some time ago, according to a Sofia dispatch to the Corriere Della Sera.

By the terms of this treaty, the dispatch asserts, the Bulgarian army is bound to attack Serbia with six divisions in the Nish-Pirot section, and to send Macedonian troops to Vardar to destroy railroad communication with Saloniki; thus delaying the allies in their efforts to aid Serbia.

The opposition Bulgarian leaders are reported to have changed front completely, and now proclaim that the nation is united.

Bands of students parade the streets of Sofia, singing alternately the Bulgarian, German and Austrian national anthems.

London, October 5.—Whether by delay in telegraphic communications or by some other unexplained cause, Bulgaria obtained an additional 24 hours in which to decide her course.

But with troops of the allies ready with Russian squadrons in the Black Sea prepared to attack Bulgarian ports and with Bulgarian forces along both the Serbian and Greek frontiers, there was believed to be little chance of any development which would prevent Bulgaria from aligning herself against the allies.

Special dispatches from Athens assert that Greek sailing ships already have been pursued by Bulgarian revenue cutters, the Greeks being fired upon but escaping.

Nish, Serbia, via London, October 5.—Close observers of the Balkan situation are of the opinion today that if Bulgaria does not at once dismiss the German officers who have been brought into the country to take part in Bulgaria's threatened military operations, an extension of the war in the Balkans is inevitable.

The arrival here in a few days is expected of the first detachment of troops of the quadruple entente.

The Serbian army is declared to be better prepared than ever to go into action.

XENIA PIGSKIN CHASERS LIKED BEER; SUSPENDED

How three Xenia saloonkeepers are facing charges for selling liquor to minors, and the Xenia football team which played in this city recently contains the minors, it is charged.

The following from the Xenia Gazette tells the story:

"Charges of selling intoxicating liquor to minors will be filed Tuesday with the Greene County Liquor

License Board by the Xenia School Board against three Xenia saloonkeepers. This drastic course is the result of an escapade of several members of the high school football squad who had a party on the train returning from Washington C. H., a week ago Saturday when bottled beer figured prominently on the liquid end of the bill of fare.

"Investigation of several complaints made as a result of the escapade consumed several days and brought slow developments.

"Their story was broken down and they implicated a young employee of one of the local factories, whom they claimed had bought the beer. He is also a minor. This young man admitted that he had secured the beer for the boys. The charges will be filed against three saloonkeepers.

"Wednesday night the time limit expires for the filing of complaints before the license board. It is probable that the license will be revoked as there has been much complaint made informally about the laxity of the saloons of the city in adhering to the law prohibiting the sale to minors.

"Several of the boys in the football squad were suspended and it is likely that they will not be allowed to take part in athletics this season."

NEW ROAD MAY NOT BE OPENED FOR SOMETIME

Announcement is made that the Jeffersonville pike paving may not be thrown open to the public for sometime to come, all depending upon whether or not Contractors Parish and Bales, of Dayton, are to begin the improvement of the road from the present paving terminus to the intersection of the Prairie pike. If the contractors take up the work it may be early winter before the road is opened.

Contractor Mark announces that the state requires 15 days for the paving to "set" after completed, and that if the other contractors do not begin work, the road will be opened sometime the latter part of next week, instead of Saturday of this week.

SPAIN WANTS PEACE PARLEY

London, Oct. 4.—The following statement is attributed to the Spanish premier: "Spain continues to observe neutrality respecting both belligerents and places at the disposal of either group her diplomatic services should they be required. This neutrality will be preserved until the end of the war. It is Spain's desire to do everything possible to promote the cause of peace. No other nation has a greater right to exert that role. It is my hope, shared by the king, that the world peace will be signed at Madrid, an event which is not improbable."

The Church and the Engagement
 The breaking of the engagement, often a thing of light moment to young people, is by one church made a concern of religion and there are several other churches scarcely less strict in the viewpoint they take of the sacredness and binding force of betrothals.

Authorities in these religious bodies impress upon their communicants that the breaking off of a betrothal is a violation of the teaching and practice of their religion. In the Catholic church, which takes the most decided stand upon this question, a promise to wed, once given, is considered but little less sacred than the vows at the altar. Its church legislation on the engagement problem provides that when members of its faith enter into engagements to marry the parish priest must be notified and the final announcement of the couple's intention to marry is recorded in the records of the parish.

There is no question that this policy of publishing the banns is a safeguard to the parties concerned, giving opportunity for anyone cognizant of any real impediment to the marriage, to make it known.

The question of broken engagements, and that bigger question of divorce, has and always will arouse warm argument and widely diverse opinions.

But, in these days of lightly made and easily broken engagements, it is well to impress the seriousness of the betrothal. The fact that churches make the engagement a real concern of religion lends vital importance to its sacredness.

There may be cases when an engagement is much better broken than kept, when legitimate reasons prohibit holding to the vow, when lives are spared infinite unhappiness by discovering the mistake in time, but these cases ought to be the exception, not the common thing they are.

If young people knew that it would be impossible to break their promise to wed except with great difficulty, the passing engagement of the summer flirtation; the mere passing whim of an idle hour, would cease to be a popular amusement and in its place thoughtful consideration be given to a contract which should be the most sacred in life.

American Genius Honored in Life

Strange, but true, genius has seldom been recognized during its lifetime.

There have been flowers and honors in abundance after genius has been buried, when those same tributes paid to the living might have proved the live coal to stir smoldering embers to blazing brilliancy.

But at least one American, man of letters is to receive official recognition during his lifetime—the Hoosier poet whose poems have a distinctive place in every library and who is always especially in mind at this season when "The Frost is on the Pumpkin and the Fodder in the Shock."

All Indiana is preparing to celebrate October the seventh in honor of the birthday of its loved poet, James Whitcomb Riley.

Four years ago, after a stroke of paralysis, Mr. Riley said, "My work is finished and my end is come."

That the end did not come and that the author of "The Raggedy-man" has so improved in health that it now seems to be far distant, is the joy of the Hoosiers. Riley Day will be a big day, with schools holding celebrations all over the state and people coming from other states back to Indiana to join in the common outpouring of affection.

Indiana is a state of literary celebrities, but among all of its shining lights no one has ever held just the same place as this poet, the tenderness of whose genius folds him into the hearts of the people.

With the same spirit that penned the lines, "When God sends rain, why, rain's my choice," Mr. Riley now renews all the interests of his younger days and declares that he is "enjoying life in spite of the war in Europe."

The celebration of "Riley Day" with Riley living, pulses with a very different interest from that of the eulogies and tributes heaped upon the memory of a departed genius.

Agricultural Progress Not Keeping Pace With Industrial Growth

By MYRON T. HERRICK, Former Ambassador to France

THE troubles with American agriculture are not so much of pressing, immediate importance as they are fraught with grave consequences for the future. Europe's problem was to remove troubles which actually existed. Ours is to prevent them from occurring. Agricultural progress here is not keeping pace with the expansion of industry and the growth of population.

UNLESS ITS PROGRESS BE ACCELERATED THE SHORTCOMINGS OF AGRICULTURE AMID THE RAPID ADVANCE OF ALL THINGS ELSE WILL SOONER OR LATER BE DETRIMENTAL TO THE COUNTRY'S WELFARE.

The causes of these shortcomings are manifold. The want of good roads is one and the absence of social pleasures is another cause, but the greatest of all is, in my opinion, the lack of organized selling and purchasing power.

Organized selling and purchasing power is best attained through co-operation.

Co-operation must be built up by the farmers themselves by starting at the very roots and depending on their own resources and efforts, first assembled and combined in basic units or local co-operative banks or credit societies.

Poetry For Today

COMIN' ON OCTOBER.

It's a comin' on October an' the woods is gettin' yellin';
 Sort o' hazylike an' lazy to a dreamy sort o' feller.

They's a jay a'singin' sassy on a pin-oak by th' gate.

An' a katydid a-fiddlin' "Gettin' later! Gettin' later!"

They's a gum tree turnin' purple an' a maple turnin' red.

An' th' beach leaves is a-brownin' like es if th' tree was dead.

Oh, it's wine 'stid o' blood drops that's pumpin' round in me.

'Cause it's comin' on October an' I'm glad as I kin be.

Sky's th' bluest in th' middle—sort o' greyish round the rim.

While th' fur hills is purplish an' th' sides is kin' o' dim.

Every sumac is a-blazin' like the bush that Moses seen

When he had t' take 'is shoes off an' go barefoot on th' green.

Chestnut burr's gittin' bigger, groun' strewn with akern cups.

An' th' whole blam' worl' is purtier'n a brace o' spotted pups.

I'm forgettin' that I'm forty an' rememberin' I'm 'leven.

'Cause it's coming on October, an' I'm shoul'r deep in heaven.

Portsmouth, O., Oct. 5.—Three frame dwellings were destroyed and one side of a hill washed away when the east concrete wall of the huge reservoir for the storage of the Portsmouth water supply collapsed, precipitating 7,000,000 gallons of water down the steep hillside. Occupants of the houses fled to safety before the torrent of water reached their homes.

Submarine Issue to Be Aired at a Conference.

Washington, Oct. 5.—The next step toward an adjustment of the submarine controversy between the United States and Germany will be a conference between Secretary of State Lansing and Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador.

The understanding here is that Count Von Bernstorff has been given very wide latitude by his government in negotiating a settlement of the controversy, and that from now on the negotiations are likely to take the form of personal memoranda, passing between the German ambassador and the state department. This is accepted here as evidence that the Berlin authorities have come to lend an attentive ear to Count Bernstorff's recommendations. The communication which passed between Secretary Lansing and the German ambassador last week is understood now to have been of this personal character, but based on general instructions from Berlin.

XENIA PIGSKIN CHASERS LIKED BEER; SUSPENDED

How three Xenia saloonkeepers are facing charges for selling liquor to minors, and the Xenia football team which played in this city recently contains the minors, it is charged.

The following from the Xenia Gazette tells the story:

"Charges of selling intoxicating liquor to minors will be filed Tuesday with the Greene County Liquor

License Board by the Xenia School Board against three Xenia saloonkeepers. This drastic course is the result of an escapade of several members of the high school football squad who had a party on the train returning from Washington C. H., a week ago Saturday when bottled beer figured prominently on the liquid end of the bill of fare.

"Investigation of several complaints made as a result of the escapade consumed several days and brought slow developments.

"Their story was broken down and they implicated a young employee of one of the local factories, whom they claimed had bought the beer. He is also a minor. This young man admitted that he had secured the beer for the boys. The charges will be filed against three saloonkeepers.

"Wednesday night the time limit expires for the filing of complaints before the license board. It is probable that the license will be revoked as there has been much complaint made informally about the laxity of the saloons of the city in adhering to the law prohibiting the sale to minors.

"Several of the boys in the football squad were suspended and it is likely that they will not be allowed to take part in athletics this season."

Another Fox picture is booked for Wednesday, "The Regeneration," based on Owen Kildare's "My Mamie Rose." The story is taken from the life of the author himself, and is splendidly put forth by Anna Milson and Rockliffe Fellows.

Tuesday the Colonial has another Diamond from the Sky picture, "The Man in the Mask."

NEW ROAD MAY NOT BE OPENED FOR SOMETIME

Announcement is made that the Jeffersonville pike paving may not be thrown open to the public for sometime to come, all depending upon whether or not Contractors Parish and Bales, of Dayton, are to begin the improvement of the road from the present paving terminus to the intersection of the Prairie pike.

If the contractors take up the work it may be early winter before the road is opened.

Contractor Mark announces that the state requires 15 days for the paving to "set" after completed, and that if the other contractors do not begin work, the road will be opened sometime the latter part of next week, instead of Saturday of this week.

The breaking of the engagement, often a thing of light moment to young people, is by one church made a concern of religion and there are several other churches scarcely less strict in the viewpoint they take of the sacredness and binding force of betrothals.

Authorities in these religious bodies impress upon their communicants that the breaking off of a betrothal is a violation of the teaching and practice of their religion.

In the Catholic church, which takes the most decided stand upon this question, a promise to wed, once given, is considered but little less sacred than the vows at the altar. Its church legislation on the engagement problem provides that when members of its faith enter into engagements to marry the parish priest must be notified and the final announcement of the couple's intention to marry is recorded in the records of the parish.

There is no question that this policy of publishing the banns is a safeguard to the parties concerned, giving opportunity for anyone cognizant of any real impediment to the marriage, to make it known.

The question of broken engagements, and that bigger question of divorce, has and always will arouse warm argument and widely diverse opinions.

But, in these days of lightly made and easily broken engagements, it is well to impress the seriousness of the betrothal. The fact that churches make the engagement a real concern of religion lends vital importance to its sacredness.

There may be cases when an engagement is much better broken than kept, when legitimate reasons prohibit holding to the vow, when lives are spared infinite unhappiness by discovering the mistake in time, but these cases ought to be the exception, not the common thing they are.

If young people knew that it would be impossible to break their promise to wed except with great difficulty, the passing engagement of the summer flirtation; the mere passing whim of an idle hour, would cease to be a popular amusement and in its place thoughtful consideration be given to a contract which should be the most sacred in life.

American Genius Honored in Life

Strange, but true, genius has seldom been recognized during its lifetime.

There have been flowers and honors in abundance after genius has been buried, when those same tributes paid to the living might have proved the live coal to stir smoldering embers to blazing brilliancy.

But at least one American, man of letters is to receive official recognition during his lifetime—the Hoosier poet whose poems have a distinctive place in every library and who is always especially in mind at this season when "The Frost is on the Pumpkin and the Fodder in the Shock."

All Indiana is preparing to celebrate October the seventh in honor of the birthday of its loved poet, James Whitcomb Riley.

Four years ago, after a stroke of paralysis, Mr. Riley said, "My work is finished and my end is come."

That the end did not come and that the author of "The Raggedy-man" has so improved in health that it now seems to be far distant, is the joy of the Hoosiers. Riley Day will be a big day, with schools holding celebrations all over the state and people coming from other states back to Indiana to join in the common outpouring of affection.

Indiana is a state of literary celebrities, but among all of its shining lights no one has ever held just the same place as this poet, the tenderness of whose genius folds him into the hearts of the people.

With the same spirit that penned the lines, "When God sends rain, why, rain's my choice," Mr. Riley now renews all the interests of his younger days and declares that he is "enjoying life in spite of the war in Europe."

The celebration of "Riley Day" with Riley living, pulses with a very different interest from that of the eulogies and tributes heaped upon the memory of a departed genius.

Agricultural Progress Not Keeping Pace With Industrial Growth

By MYRON T. HERRICK, Former Ambassador to France

THE troubles with American agriculture are not so much of pressing, immediate importance as they are fraught with grave consequences for the future. Europe's problem was to remove troubles which actually existed. Ours is to prevent them from occurring. Agricultural progress here is not keeping pace with the expansion of industry and the growth of population.

UNLESS ITS PROGRESS BE ACCELERATED THE SHORTCOMINGS OF AGRICULTURE AMID THE RAPID ADVANCE OF ALL THINGS ELSE WILL SOONER OR LATER BE DETRIMENTAL TO THE COUNTRY'S WELFARE.

The causes of these shortcomings are manifold. The want of good roads is one and the absence of social pleasures is another cause, but the greatest of all is, in my opinion, the lack of organized selling and purchasing power.

Organized selling and purchasing power is best attained through co-operation.

Co-operation must be built up by the farmers themselves by starting at the very roots and depending on their own resources and efforts, first assembled and combined in basic units or local co-operative banks or credit societies.

Poetry For Today

COMIN' ON OCTOBER.

It's a comin' on October an' the woods is gettin' yellin';
 Sort o' hazylike an' lazy to a dreamy sort o' feller.

They's a jay a'singin' sassy on a pia-oak by th' gate.
 An' a katydid a-fiddlin' "Gettin later! Gettin la-ate!"

They's a gum tree turnin' purple an' a maple turnin' red,
 An' th' beach leaves is a-brownin' like es if th' tree was dead.

Oh, it's wine 'stid o' blood drops that's pumpin' round in me,
 'Cause it's comin' on October an' I'm glad as I kin be.

Sky's th' bluest in th' middle—sort o' greyish round the rim.
 While th' fur hills is purplish an' th' sides is kin' o' dim.

Every sumac is a-blazin' like the bush that Moses seen
 When he had t' take 'is shoes off an' go barefoot on th' green.

Chestnut burr's gittin' bigger, groun' strewn with akern cups,
 An' th' whole blam' worl' is purtier'n a brace o' spotted pups.

I'm forgettin' that I'm forty an' rememberin' I'm 'leven,
 'Cause it's coming on October, an' I'm shoul'r deep in heaven.

Cleveland, Oct. 5.—Victory for striking machinists was indicated when A. L. Garford, president of the Cleveland Automatic Machine company, openly espoused the cause of the workmen. Millions of Gallons of Water Freed. Portsmouth, O., Oct. 5.—Three frame dwellings were destroyed and one side of a hill washed away when the east concrete wall of the huge reservoir for the storage of the Portsmouth water supply collapsed, precipitating 7,000,000 gallons of water down the steep hillside. Occupants of the houses fled to safety before the torrent of water reached their homes.

Submarine Issue to Be Aired at a Conference.

Washington, Oct. 5.—The next step toward an adjustment of the submarine controversy between the United States and Germany will be a conference between Secretary of State Lansing and Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador.

The understanding here is that Count Von Bernstorff has been given very wide latitude by his government in negotiating a settlement of the controversy, and that from now on the negotiations are likely to take the form of personal memoranda, passing between the German ambassador and the state department. This is accepted here as evidence that the Berlin authorities have come to lend an attentive ear to Count Bernstorff's recommendations. The communication which passed between Secretary Lansing and the German ambassador last week is understood now to have been of this personal character, but based on general instructions from Berlin.

COUNCIL BEGINS ANEW ON LIGHTING SYSTEM

Special Assessment Resolutions for the "White Way" Are Passed—"Missing Link" Near Union Station Believed to Be Nearing Settlement—"White Wings" Taken From Streets—Ordinance for Increasing Taxes Passed By Unanimous Vote—Yeoman Street Improvement Is Halted—Citizen Makes Protest Against "White Way"—Meeting Next Monday Night.

In addition to reopening legislation for the new lighting system, including the proposed "white way" discussing the Union Station project in an effort to discover the "missing link" between Millwood and the main part of the city, the city council Monday night passed an ordinance to submit a two mill tax increase to the voters, knocked out the "white wings" who clean the uptown streets and have been paid by general taxation, refused to improve Yeoman street until other more important streets are given attention, and indicated their determination to hew to the lines previously decided upon.

The first township trustees and council joint met, approved the Cemetery Superintendent's report and named A. T. Vincent to fill a vacancy on the committee of trustees and council who control the cemetery business.

The first matter of business coming before the council was that of a street flusher, Mr. Shoemaker, representing the Studebaker Company describing the Uniform Pressure Flusher manufactured by that concern, and which is being used by many Ohio municipalities. No action was taken toward investigating the merits of the flusher.

George Inskeep addressed council, urging a "give and take" policy to obtain the new Union Station.

An ordinance declaring the tax levy insufficient to meet the city's requirements under existing laws, and asking that a two mill increase be submitted to the voters, was passed by unanimous vote.

A communication from The J. W. Willis Lumber Company was read. The company offered a 40 foot right of way across the company's property at the southern end of their lumber yards as a solution of the "missing link" to take the place of Paint street when the Union Station is erected. A number of conditions were attached, including changes at the concrete bridge, a concrete retaining wall, agreement to pave within seven years at no cost to the donors. The right of way was to be donated to the city.

A communication from Chas. Allen in which a right of way across his property south of the sales barn and connecting with the Willis right of way, was read. Mr. Allen also offered to donate the right of way providing the thoroughfare have a top width of 26 feet and be maintained by the city.

Will Worthington presented proposals from P. J. Burke, on a right of way across his property for the "missing link." A strip of ground 40 feet wide, from Temple to the B. & O. was offered for the sum of $1,000, providing the city turned over Water street to him. He offered a strip 12 feet in width for widening Water street, for the sum of $1250.

Oliver Baughn, of Millwood, stated that he and Mr. Ed Pfeiffer had discovered a new route for the link, by coming across the Dayton avenue bridge, bending across the corner of the Burke property, crossing the railroad and coming out over a street where the alley is located, between Paint street and Temple street, and connecting with Hinde street. The Jane Davis property must be purchased, he stated. In order to make the street 46 feet in width. He said the route outlined was better than any yet discovered and placed Millwood just as near up town as it is at the present time. This was apparently satisfactory to all Millwood residents present.

It was thought the B. & O. or D. T. & I. would object to the route as it would cross the proposed union station platform along the C. H. & D. and D. T. & I. railroads.

Veail said Millwood citizens were entitled to the best that council could give, and moved that council as a whole investigate and decide at an early meeting. This was adopted. Council will go over the ground at nine o'clock Wednesday morning.

Mr. Worthington was asked to obtain the consent of the railroads to cross the tracks.

Mayor Coffey's report for September showed $217.15 in fines, $17 in street licenses and $4.20 for jail board.

Auditor McFadden's monthly report showed the following balances September 30: General fund, $1,377.87; Safety fund, $101.58; Health, $162.35; Service, $9,013.91; Service Bond $6.61.

A resolution authorizing Service Director Gerstner to employ labor on the Leesburg avenue sewer at 25c per hour, was adopted.

A resolution changing the denomination of $7,500 in city bonds, was adopted.

An ordinance empowering the City Engineer to employ one or more persons at $5 per day, to ascertain the property owners' names and foot frontage on proposed improvements, was passed. It was declared an emergency measure.

Then in turn came five resolutions declaring it necessary to improve Court street from Hinde to North; East street from Main to Fayette; Market from Hinde to the Hess-Hodson alley; Main, from East to the Y. M. C. A. alley and Fayette from East to Market street, by erecting and maintaining an ornamental lighting system, known as a "white way," 12 standards to a square and two 250 candle power lamps to the standard, and providing for a special assessment of 50 cents per foot front per annum for a period of ten years to help pay the cost of lighting.

George Inskeep, addressing council, stated that the new system as proposed, was not a necessity but a luxury and unjust and that the taxpayers would resist the proposal. He stated that when H. Whitford Jones was employed it was understood he would obtain more light for less money, but instead he had obtained less light for more money. That the 132 old lights had a total of 158,400 candle power and the 685 new lights proposed had 110,350 candle power, or 48,050 candle power less and at an increased cost of $5,000 more each year.

M. Tracey replied that all wanted the "white way" if someone else paid for it; that a petition containing 700 names had been presented to council asking for a "white way," that council had been advised by Mr. Inskeep in a speech last fall to "handle the knockers without gloves" and that was what council proposed to do.

Each of the resolutions was submitted and passed under suspension of rules, by a unanimous vote.

No ordinance authorizing the Service Director to advertise for bids for lighting was submitted, the statement being made that such action would come later just as all proposals for street improvement are handled. This will require several months.

The blanket ordinance to issue bonds to pay the city's portion of the improvements on Main, Hinde and Yeoman streets was taken up.

Howell objected to voting in favor of the measure, stating that other streets should be improved before Yeoman street, inasmuch as Yeoman street had never paid some $2,000 in improvements made. He said many citizens had protested, $6,000 of the bonds were to pay the city's portion on the street. Under the legislation the street could be paved, although it was stated macadam was all that was wanted. $6,000 was deemed a stiff price for "macadam" and separate ordinances were prepared.

Howell then stated that it was about time to get rid of "an illegal leak of about $1,000 per year" in the Service Department, for cleaning the up town streets, and moved that the Service Director be instructed to discontinue the employment of "white wings" on the up town paved streets. All voted yes with the exception of Rowe.

The street cleaning has been paid for by general taxation, and it is expected that cleaning by special assessment will be decided upon in the near future.

Sheets moved that revenue from sewer taps be turned into the Sewer fund instead of the General fund. All voted in favor of the proposal, after which council adjourned until Monday night of next week.

What to Wear in Coats

YOU'LL soon want to choose your coat for fall and winter. Knowing the correct style features for the season will make it so much easier to choose right.

You'll find not only correct style, but the added value of superior quality and tailoring in these Wooltex coats.

Thirty-four years of coat designing and tailoring experience are back of coats that bear the Wooltex label. They lead America. They combine the best style ideas of the world's great fashion centers—Paris, London, New York and Cleveland.

Fashion says coats must have certain style features

See them in the coats

Your coat must show the natural lines of the figure, but without being tightly fitted. Or, it must hang loosely from the shoulders and may be loosely belted. Coats of either general style are smartly flaring from waist downward.

Collars of plush, cloth or fur

High, straight collars of plush or fur are ultra fashionable. Bands to match encircle the cuffs and lower edge. Self cloth collars are convertible, and may be worn low if desired. Revers are wide.

Belts in novel effects

Belts were never so stylish. Belts all around or short belt effects at sides or across the front, are artistically used to add to the dressy effect of the whole coat.

Fabrics are greatly varied

Rough fabrics in solid colors, two-tone combinations of cloth and trimmings, and Scotch mixtures have Dame Fashion's stamp of approval. One of the decidedly fashionable coatings is Pompadour cloth, to be found only in the Wooltex Pompadour coats.

PURE wool materials tested by experts, and custom quality tailoring support correct style in every Wooltex coat.

No matter how many seasons you choose to wear your Wooltex coat, it stays good looking. It is refined, genteel—the ideal for a gentlewoman.

The variety of models, in many cloths and colors, makes it easy to select one that is becoming to you. At $16.50, $20, $25, $30 and upwards, we have Wooltex coats to suit your figure, your tastes and your purse.

DON'T FORGET THAT RUMMAGE SALE

The Welfare Association is preparing for the annual fall Rummage

Sale for the benefit of the poor for early November. It is earnestly hoped that the women of Washington will keep in mind this sale and hoard all old clothing rummaged out in the fall cleaning.

The Rummage sale has a double mission; it provides articles of clothing and other necessities at a nominal price which enables the self-respecting poor to purchase and it brings greatly needed funds into the society's treasury at a time when cold weather brings many calls. Housewives often throw away many articles which would be much appreciated by the Welfare Association.

The Presbytery will supply the pulpit next Sunday.

BRIGHT YOUNG GIRL CLAIMED BY DEATH

Sad beyond words to express was the death of Miss Dovey Louise Myers, daughter of Mr. Frank Myers, of below Good Hope, which occurred at the Hodson Hospital shortly after nine o'clock Monday night.

A lovely young girl of sixteen, making friends wherever she went, and the only daughter in a home saddened by the mother's death five years ago, and who had since made the home for her father and four brothers, her untimely death arouses the deepest sympathy of the community and many friends in this city and at the former home, Bloomingburg.

Last week Miss Myers was taken ill with appendicitis, but refused to give up. She had been attending school and was in her place as late as Friday. Saturday morning she was taken to the hospital suffering greatly and the disease too far advanced to be conquered.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 at the M. E. church of Good Hope. Burial in the family lot in the Bloomingburg cemetery.

CHOLERA VIRUS IS BLAMED

Columbus, Oct. 5.—By an order adopted by the state board of agriculture it is decreed that anti-hog cholera serum shall not be imported into the state or sold, used or given away, unless a written permit has been issued by the state veterinarian, nor are swine to be given such treatment except upon permit. State Veterinarian Cooley states that disease has been spread in the state by impure serum.

SAY RUSSIA IS STARVING POLISH JEWS

New York, Oct. 5.—The Day, the national Jewish daily, has received the following wireless message from Berlin, from its editor, Herman Bernstein, who is at present traveling in the belligerent countries: "Russian outrages against the Jewish population are continuing despite rumors circulated that the condition of the Jews has improved. The truth is that the distress of Russian-Polish Jews is appalling. Hundreds of thousands are literally starving. Immediate relief on the largest scale is imperative. Russia is trying to solve the Jewish question by annihilating the Jews."

MAY IGNORE INDUSTRIAL INFRACTIONS

Denver, Colo., Oct. 5.—While all the miners in the coal camps on one hand and the directors of the company on the other were ratifying the Rockefeller industrial plan, state officials were discussing a conference between Mr. Rockefeller and Governor Carlson and its probable effect upon the quashing of 400 indictments pending against former strikers and labor leaders growing out of the Colorado coal strike.

There is a growing belief that the entire industrial situation in Colorado would be improved by the dismissal of most, if not all, of the strike cases. It is not improbable that further prosecution may be dropped of the case against John R. Lawson, United Mine Workers official, whose appeal from the conviction for murder is now pending before the state supreme court. Prominent men well informed regarding the political strength of the company in Colorado, particularly with the present administration, say, "the whole slate could be wiped clean if the mining interests so desired."

FRENCH TROOPS LAND IN GREECE

Allies Will Aid Serbia In Repelling Invaders.

GREAT CONFLICT IMMINENT

Teutonic Armies Massed Along the Serbian Frontier Said to Number Several Hundred Thousand Men. Commander of British Forces at the Dardanelles Looks Over the Ground. Attitude of Greece.

London, Oct. 5.—To aid in repelling German or Bulgarian invasion of Serbia, the allies have landed French troops at Salonika, where they have probably already entrained to join the Serbian army.

Field Marshal Von Mackensen has arrived on the Serbian frontier, says a Bucharest dispatch, to assume command of the Austro-German forces about to press into Serbia. One hundred thousand German soldiers have been moved from Bukovina to the Serbian frontier. From many sources it is estimated that the Teutonic armies massed along this front number several hundred thousand men.

Two powerful Russian squadrons are lying off Varna, the principal Bulgarian Black sea port, says a message from Salonika. Extensive military preparations are under way at Odessa and Sebastopol, where numerous transports have been collected. These movements are taken to indicate a Russian attempt to land troops at Varna as soon as the naval forces have reduced the insufficient fortifications.

It is understood that a very considerable force of allied troops are stationed on the island of Lemnos, but a few hours by water from Salonika. Military observers are inclined to think that the extensive Italian expeditionary army which departed from Naples and Brindisi in August is being held at Lemnos for momentary transportation to Serbia by way of Salonika.

General Sir Ian Hamilton, commander of the British forces at the Dardanelles, arrived at Salonika, says another dispatch from Athens, to look over the ground there and superintend preparations for the transportation of the expeditionary forces across Greece to Serbia.

Respecting the landing of French troops, the official organ of the Greek government says that for the present the assistance of the allies is considered premature, but that it is none the less to aid and support Greece that the allies are at Salonika. The three Macedonia railways, of which two are Austrian, and one French, have been taken over by the Greek ministry of war and will be operated especially for the transportation of troops.

6000 STRIKERS

Schenectady, N. Y., Oct. 5.—Six thousand employees of the General Electric company's plant here walked out on strike after failure to obtain an eight-hour working day. The strike came after the grievance committee of the Metal Trades alliance had accepted the company's offer of a fifty-two and one-half hour week. The men refused to accept the compromise, repudiated the committee's action and struck.

OLD, OLD STORY OF CUSSSEDNESS

New York, Oct. 5.—The federal grand jury returned an indictment under the Elkins amendment to the interstate commerce law charging the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad with failing to charge the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Coal company the full amount due under the federal tariffs for shipments of coal made by the coal company over the Lackawanna lines.

WASTE SCHOOL LAND INCOME?

Columbus, Oct. 5.—Examination of school lands in twelve counties by Examiner John A. Bliss has disclosed mismanagement and waste, according to a statement given out by State Auditor Donahey. "The boards of trustees required to administer these lands in the interests of the schools are not legally constituted, and the same waste exists as in other counties heretofore reported on," said Mr. Donahey's statement. "The twelve counties comprise an acreage of 5,298 acres, and the market value is $250,730. The schools are receiving an average of 1.77 per cent of their market value. If the lands were sold and the proceeds invested by the state they would receive nearly four times the present annual revenue."

SUFFRAGE IS BOOSTED BY THE CABINET

Washington, Oct. 5.—Practically all doubt as to the president's decision to endorse suffrage as a state issue in the forthcoming election in New Jersey was removed when Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo announced that he intended to vote for the suffrage amendment to the New York constitution. The announcement of the secretary following so closely upon that of Secretary of War Garrison and Secretary Tamm that they intended to vote for the equal suffrage amendment in New Jersey is regarded as making it practically certain that Mr. Wilson soon will be enrolled as an advocate of granting the vote to women by the states. Secretary of Commerce Redfield and Secretary of Labor Wilson have declared in favor of suffrage in their respective states also.

It was said at the White House that the president will issue a statement about Oct. 12 setting forth that he will vote in the suffrage election in New Jersey.

GERMAN FORCES RETAKE REDOUBT

British Forced Back By Driving Counter Attacks.

REPULSED AT OTHER POINTS

Also Gain a Footing In Sharp Engagement With The French South of Givenchy—Asphyxiating Gas Is Used by the British In Recent Offensive, Says Berlin—Aeroplanes of the Allies In Another Raid.

London, Oct. 5.—In the west the German forces have persisted in their driving counter attacks against the British until they have retaken most of the Hohenzollern redoubt, so named by the German soldiers. This is admitted by Field Marshal French's latest report, but it is not claimed specifically by the Germans themselves, possibly because of the fact that the loss of this stronghold was never conceded by Berlin.

That asphyxiating gas was used by the British in their recent offensive is the charge circulated by Berlin. The British war office had made no statement regarding the truth or falsity of this.

The French war office reports that trench fighting of a violent nature is raging in Artois. To the south of Givenchy the Germans have gained a footing at the crossing of five roads, but were repulsed everywhere else.

The German claim that the British lost 60,000 and the French 130,000 men in the recent fighting also is without dental so far.

German naval airships damaged two British monitors off La Panne, on the Belgian coast near the French border, it was officially announced in Berlin.

German army headquarters declares the recent British success near Lens was due to a surprise and a gas attack and not to "any soldierly qualities of the English attack."

Five aeroplanes of the allies bombed Zeebrugge, on the Belgian coast, an Amsterdam newspaper announces. One machine was brought down by anti-aircraft gunfire, while another, which had motor trouble, was compelled to land in Dutch territory.

TURKEY WARNED BY PRES. WILSON

Slaughter of Armenians Threatens Relations.

NOTE SENT TO MORGENTHAU

Latter Instructed to Inform the Porte That the American People Are Stirred by Reports of Massacres of Armenians In Turkish Territory—Wilson Makes Plea That Atrocities Cease.

Washington, Oct. 5.—United States Ambassador Morgenthau at Constantinople was instructed by cable to inform the Turkish minister of foreign affairs that public sentiment in the United States is so stirred by the reports of the Armenian atrocities that unless the massacres ceased, friendly relations between the American people and the people of Turkey would be threatened.

Officials made it clear that this message, though its importance was by no means minimized, did not threaten a break in the diplomatic relations. Turkey already has let it be known that she will not permit interference by any foreign power with her so-called "Armenian policy."

As American life or property has not been affected, the United States government, without submitting an official protest, merely informs Turkey of the effect continued Armenian atrocities would have on the American people.

Secretary Lansing said that no representations had been made to Germany regarding the treatment of the Armenians by the Turks. It was learned, however, that Ambassador Morgenthau had reported that the German embassy at Constantinople had filed a protest on this subject with the Turkish foreign office.

An announcement some time ago said that the state department had asked Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador here, to bring the matter to the attention of the foreign office.

The suggestion made recently by Ambassador Morgenthau at Constantinople that a large number of Armenians from Asiatic Turkey be brought to this country, was declared by the American board of commissioners for foreign missions to be inadvisable.

Flagman Missing.
Port Clinton, O., Oct. 5.—John Robinson, seventy, flagman on the Lake Shore road, has disappeared. It is said he feared he would be blamed for the death of Christ Seufert, who was killed at the crossing Saturday evening.

Found In River.
Cincinnati, Oct. 5.—The body of a girl who apparently was about fifteen years old, was found in the Ohio river at Stop 30 on the interurban traction line east of Cincinnati. The body was attired in a black bathing suit and black bathing cap. It evidently had been in the water for weeks.

Talk With Governor Willis.
Columbus, Oct. 5.—State officials, seated in the chamber of the house of representatives, for an hour exchanged congratulations and swapped jokes with Governor Willis and his party at the Ohio building at the exposition in San Francisco, 2,700 miles away. Immediately afterwards, the governor held a conversation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Willis, at Delaware.

It speaks well for the agricultural industry of this country that 60 per cent of the farms are worked by their owners, that 80 per cent of the farms owned are free from encumbrance and that of those owned as investments 40 per cent are unencumbered.

Business men and others training at the Plattsburg and Fort Sheridan camps should brace themselves to the fact that these affairs are not holiday outings for real soldiers, but the routine thing, year in and year out.

Freakish weather is likely to modify the autumn outdoor color scheme, but various shades of brown, yellow and red are likely to prevail as usual.

DEMS WILL GO AFTER TWO LAWS

Columbus, Oct. 5.—The Democratic state central and state executive committees, state and county leaders and five congressmen met here and made plans for their campaign against the Sprague congressional district law. By resolution, they also endorsed the Greenlund license law and denounced the McDermott law. They urged the voters to vote against the McDermott law and for "the present law, passed by the Democratic general assembly of 1913."

State Chairman William L. Finley, with a special committee to aid him, was put in charge of the campaign against the Sprague law. By resolution it was asserted the gerrymander was designed to make certain seventeen Republican districts out of twenty-two, and to give half the voters of the state, who are Democrats, less than one-fourth the representation in congress the other half of the voters, who are Republicans, would have.

Strong pressure is being brought to bear on the Republican state organization to make a fight in defense of the McDermott license law, which has been subjected to referendum, as for the one other Republican measure on which a referendum has been brought, the Sprague law.

GRAND JURY COMPLETES TWO-DAY INVESTIGATION

At 3:15 o'clock Tuesday afternoon the October grand jury made its report to Judge Carpenter after having been in session two days, examining nearly 60 witnesses covering a score of cases. The jail was visited and found kept in accordance with the rules governing the prison.

The grand jury returned seven true bills, ignoring 12 of the cases coming to their attention.

Indictments returned are:

Ralph Chilcote, rape, committed upon Helen Payne, September 14.

Roy Butler, cutting with intent to kill Harvey Lloyd.

Ralph Smith, assault with intent to kill Willard Johnson, June 20.

Orin Benjamin, larceny and receiving stolen property.

Elmer Cox and Allen Justice, larceny.

Clarence Taylor and Alfred Butler, alias Alfred Smith, burglary and larceny.

Riley Justice, assault and battery.

In the case of Frank Conner, accused of assault with intent to kill, the grand jury returned no indictment, holding that the man was insane at the time and is now insane. This is probably the first instance of its kind ever recorded in the local courts.

A cell for solitary confinement was recommended for the county jail.

COURT WILL REVIEW CASE

By Associated Press.
Columbus, October 5.—The Supreme Court today decided to review the suit brought to test the validity of the new Barnes-Moore civil service law.

FACING CHARGE OF DISORDERLY CONDUCT

As a result of trouble occurring Sunday, in which Wade Keaton and John Gillum were implicated, the two men were placed in the county jail to await arraignment upon a charge of disorderly conduct.

They were left in the jail until Tuesday, while efforts to obtain funds to pay their way out, were made. Keaton was recently bound over to the grand jury on a charge of assault and battery.

In Social Circles

The October meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution most auspiciously opened the new year with a charming program and large attendance at the home of Mrs. Robert Howat, Monday afternoon.

Assisting Mrs. Howat as the afternoon's hostesses were Mesdames Ballard, Quinn, Jackson, Harlow, Coffman, Pruden, Blakeley, Boggs, of GoodHope, Beatty, Misses Rose McLean and Forest Allen.

A short business session prefaced the program.

Mrs. Frank M. Kennedy, first vice president, was in the chair and expressed the chapter's regret in having received the resignation of the Regent, Mrs. Emma A. Brown Morris.

The executive committee appointed Mrs. Kennedy as first vice to the office of Regent, Miss Emma Jackson to the office of first vice Regent and Mrs. H. E. Maynard to take Miss Jackson's place on the Committee of Safety.

The Daughters were asked to visit Mrs. Barney, of Greenfield, a daughter of the Hillsboro chapter, who is at the Hodson Hospital.

The following delegates were appointed to the State D. A. R. convention to be held in London on October 26th, 27th and 28th: The Regent, Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. Os Briggs, Miss Florence Ogle and Mrs. Robert Howat; alternates, Mrs. Joseph H. Harper, Mrs. James A. Crawford, Miss Ethel Pine and Miss Emma Jackson.

An invitation was extended to the local chapter from the Columbus chapter for an anniversary celebration on the eleventh of October.

The business disposed of, the Daughters, with quite a number of invited guests, were favored by Mrs. Walter Meek of Denver, Colo., with a group of songs. Those who have heard Mrs. Meek are always most eager to hear her again, both for the beautiful tone quality of her resonant soprano and her sympathetic interpretation. She is one of those singers endowed with the rarest of gifts—temperament.

The first of her songs "By Name," Mary Knight Wood, gave her voice the most brilliant opportunity, but there was great charm in "The Land of the Sky Blue Water," one of the Canadian Indian songs, in which are found in pure form the melodies of the tribal Indians, combined with their words.

In response to a prolonged encore Mrs. Meek sang a pretty love song, "All For You."

Pertinent to the first gathering after the various happenings of the summer, Miss McLean led in a symposium on "Vacation Journeys."

In response to the leader's call Mrs. James A. Crawford gave an entertaining brief resume of her trip of last spring through the south and southwest, touching especially upon New Orleans, La., leading cities of Texas and Oklahoma, and introducing a pleasing personal touch in locating former Washingtonians now in the south and west.

Always a brilliant and captivating conversationalist, Miss Haidee Van Winkle carried her audience with her in a most delightful visit to the Panama-Pacific exposition, and left them with a new impression of the marvelous panorama of beauty coloring and architecture, which from the view point of many surpasses any former fair.

Miss Corda McCafferty closed the Daughters' journeying and supplemented Miss Van Winkle's glimpse of California, with a description of her trip through Yellow Stone National Park. Miss McCafferty's impressions of the scenic wonders of the park remained very vivid and she brought to her listeners a realistic conception of this most interesting place of tourists.

The Daughters and guests enjoyed visiting and the hospitality of the flower scented home while the hostesses served refreshments.

Among the guests were Mrs. Michael S. Creamer of Los Angeles, Cal., Mrs. Walter Meek and daughter Eleanor of Denver, Colo., and Mrs. W. W. Westerfield of New Orleans, La.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. McClure entertained with an enjoyable family dinner in honor of their guests Mrs. Margaret Beekman of Peebles, O., and Mrs. S. A. Williamson of Cincinnati. The additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McClure, daughter Miss Eva of Bloomingburg, and guest, Miss Grace McCreight of Richmond, Ind.; Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Stitt and little son Robert.

Mrs. J. J. Kelley and sister Miss Lydia Vincent, delightfully entertained the M. H. G. Club at the home of the former, Monday evening.

After the business meeting the girls sewed for the Welfare Association. Dainty refreshments were served and fall flowers decked the rooms.

Mrs. Robert Schenck, of Dayton, was an out of town guest.

The home of Mrs. Jeanette Cline, on E. Paint street, was the scene of a highly enjoyable family dinner Tuesday, in honor of the birthday of Mr. James McCoy, of Tennessee, who is visiting his sister.

Relatives came with baskets bursting with good things to eat, for a picnic dinner. Many brought presents and flowers to Mr. McCoy and showered him with greetings and good wishes.

During the afternoon other friends called and it was altogether a day of happy reunion. Mr. McCoy, whose health will not permit him to go to them, thoroughly appreciates having them visit him and renew earlier friendships.

Participating in the dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Smith and family, Mrs. Martha Patton and son Waco, Mrs. Lena Backenstoe, Mrs. J. F. Myers and children, Mrs. Eunice E. Compton, Mrs. D. H. Smith, Mrs. Carl Plyley of Springfield, Mr. Geo. McCoy, Mrs. Leda Smith and son William, Mrs. Bert McCoy, Mrs. Chas. Kearney, Mrs. Thomas Kearney, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Lemons, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Brandenburg of Wilmington, Mr. and Mrs. Cary Overstake and family.

What Does "Good Clothes" Mean?

Almost unconsciously you think of high prices when "Good Clothes" are spoken of.

But the day when it was necessary to pay high prices for a good suit is a matter of history.

It's a well known fact, and a very pleasing one, too, that Clothcraft Clothes are obtainable here in town, because they are really "Good Clothes." Popularity is the barometer by which we judge.

And $10 to $15 prices leave a large margin on the deposit side of your bank book, instead of an I. O. U. somewhere else.
